

WASHINGTON NEWS.
The Suggestion of a Two Week Session.
Congressional Proceedings.
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 23.—Senator Allison says it is not true that he has made a proposition, on the part of the Republicans, that Congress take a two week recess pending the preparation of the tariff bill. The report doubtless grows out of a casual suggestion by Senator Hoar to members of the tariff sub-committee, a recess he takes to give the sub-committee a better chance to complete its work. This, however, Mr. Allison said, was impracticable for the reason that the appropriation bills are still pending. Mr. Allison is well of the suggestion when he heard of it but on consultation with his fellow Democrats it was concluded that nothing could be done.

To-Day's Bond Offerings.
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 23.—To-day's bond offerings aggregated $700,000 in lots as follows: Four per cent, registered, $300,000 at 107; 100,000 at 107 1/2; 100,000 at 107 1/2; 100,000 at 107 1/2; 100,000 at 107 1/2. The Secretary of the Treasury accepted the following bonds to-day: $100,000 at 107 1/2; $100,000 at 107 1/2; $100,000 at 107 1/2; $100,000 at 107 1/2; $100,000 at 107 1/2.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.
The Senate.
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 23.—Sixty votes of the Senate were today given to the bill to amend the act of March 3, 1879, authorizing the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi river at St. Louis, Mo., by the words "stockholders or owners" was reported by Mr. Vest from the committee on Commerce and Navigation.

The resolution offered yesterday by Mr. Vest was taken up and adopted. Mr. Vest offered a resolution to the effect that the Secretary of the Interior for copies of the reports, affidavits and communications on which the committee on Commerce and Navigation based its letter to Mr. Burnes of the House of Representatives, and that the committee on Commerce and Navigation be authorized to make such investigation as it may deem proper. Mr. Sherman offered a resolution which was taken up and adopted. Mr. Sherman offered a resolution which was taken up and adopted. Mr. Sherman offered a resolution which was taken up and adopted.

The House.
WASHINGTON, D. C., August 23.—On motion of Mr. Morrill of Kansas the Senate bill was passed authorizing the Leavenworth Rapid Transit Railroad Co. to construct a road across the Fort Leavenworth (Kan.) Military Reservation.

Missouri Republican Campaign to Open To-Morrow.
PORT HURON, Mich., August 23.—As is his custom, Judge Thomas H. Bunker, of St. Louis, Mo., is making a tour of inspection of the State of Missouri. The program of the day includes a visit to Huron City, a couple of miles from this city, where a large crowd of Columbus people are spending the summer, and a trip to the country to call on Judge Bunker, a Democrat 100 years of age.

Crystal City Newspaper Club.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
CRYSTAL CITY, Mo., August 23.—The Ben Harrison Republican Club was organized here last night with 160 members. Mr. Geo. F. Yates of Chicago, President, and Messrs. Phillips, Haas, Jones, Frank and Corbin, Vice-Presidents. Josiah Higgins, Recording Secretary, John Burdett, Corresponding Secretary, John Burdett, Corresponding Secretary.

Butterworth and Vance Nominations.
CINCINNATI, O., August 23.—Hon. Benjamin Butterworth was nominated by acclamation for Congress by the Republican Convention of the First Ohio District to-day.

A Vice Judge for Congress.
CINCINNATI, O., August 23.—John A. Caldwell, Judge of the Police Court, was nominated for Congress on the second ballot by the Republican Convention of the Second Ohio District.

Robert Garrett's Condition.
NEW YORK, August 23.—A late hour last night it was reported that Mr. Robert Garrett had become much worse and that his relatives had removed him from the Brevoort House to the Long Island Asylum. A reporter who had been at the office of the Brevoort was refused any information and a telephone inquiry to the asylum elicited no answer. Dr. L. Partridge, who has been in constant attendance on Mr. Garrett since his illness began, refused to affirm or deny the report. His answer through the speaking tube to the reporter who called at his house, No. 15 Fifth Avenue, was: "I have nothing to say except that I am much annoyed at the ringing of my bell."

Satisfactorily Adjusted.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
JACKSON, Miss., August 23.—A conference between the representatives of the Southern Railway and the Great Northern Railway, which had been in session for several days, was adjourned to-day.

Water Convention.
PORT-DISPATCH.
PORT, Mo., August 23.—Gov. James H. Campbell, who was appointed by the State Convention to hold the office of Governor, was elected to-day by the people of the State.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23, 1893.

The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p. m. to-day, for Missouri are: Fair, weather; winds becoming southerly.

The triumphant majority by which FRANCIS carried the convention shows that his alliance with the ward bosses was as needless as it is odious.

The cotton growers are getting costly information of how the tariff keeps down prices by the recent advance in cotton bagging from 7 cents to 12 1/2 cents.

A REPUBLICAN paper gravely states:
"HARRISON, not BLAINE, is the candidate for the Presidency this year." This is timely information which should be received with gratitude.

The proposition that trusts are private affairs with which law-makers have no right to meddle is the same old dictum which YANDERBILT formulated more terse in the words "the public be d-d."

THERE are eight presidential candidates in the field, with the National Greenback party yet to hear from. And yet there are men complaining of the unsatisfactory conditions of American politics and the need of new parties.

DATE got there, and the Globe Democrat once more proves that the days of prophecy did not end with Malachi. (Globe Democrat.)

No, but they were obscured by darkest night when the Chicago Convention failed to nominate GRESHAM.

NOW it appears that LEVI P. MORTON not only imported contract labor but also violated the eight-hour law. But, according to the latest utterances of Republican prophets, this does not put him out of line with his party.

BROTHER SHEPARD'S New York Mail and Express still keeps its editorial page besprinkled with the holy water of Bible texts, but has been unanimously awarded the prize as the most audacious and persistent campaign liar of the current contest.

THE Browns gave the Brooklyn boys another trouncing yesterday. "Our Dave" carried off the nomination for Governor and overcoat and blankets make a merry fare of the dog days. Nothing can disturb the triumphant serenity of patriotic citizens of St. Louis.

THERE is nothing in the clear, comprehensive and admirable speech of Judge TURNER at Fort Hancock to indicate that the Old Roman has lost his grip. He is not so spry and active physically as he was twenty years ago, but he can think and talk just as well.

MAJ. MCKINLEY delivered a clever and effective speech before the Georgia Chau-taucas against the immediate adoption of a free trade policy for this country. But as no one is advocating the adoption of this policy except a few cranks MAJ.
MCKINLEY'S speech will have to be laid on the shelf for future use.

It is a pity some kind of bill cannot be passed through Congress which would be broad enough in its scope to cause the shutting down of the Southern outrage mill. Senator CHANDLER made the ramshackle old structure shudder yesterday with terrible charges against Southern Democrats. There is consolation, however, in the knowledge that the noise made by the old machine does not frighten anyone away from the real issues of the campaign.

THERE is an effort on the part of the municipal authorities to shift the responsibility for the failure to complete the Grand avenue bridge to each other's shoulders. If the municipal authorities would devote more attention to taking away the reason for shifting the responsibility and less to shifting it the public would be better satisfied. The big, glaring fact in the question which interests the citizens of St. Louis is that a lot of money has been spent on the bridge, and it is yet a long way from completion.

FRANCIS FOR GOVERNOR.
Mayor FRANCIS has secured the nomination for the Governorship under circumstances which also secure for him the full Democratic vote of the State, and the prospect is good for an overwhelming Democratic victory. The Post-Dispatch has preferred to see Mr. GLOVER nominated, but in the present campaign the success of one individual candidate is of less importance than the success of Democratic principles.

We preferred Mr. GLOVER because he represents that Democracy which knows no trucking to power, no compromise on questions of principle, and because he is an inherently honest, cor-ageous and patriotic public man. We refused to support the candidacy of Mr.
FRANCIS because he hid the ballot-boxes under legal technicalities when the fairness of his election was questioned, and because his canvass in this city was identified with the interests of ward bossism, of forged registration lists, of bribe-baited, convict election judges and political skulduggery of every kind.

Having said this much against him, we will, in justice to Mr. FRANCIS, say that he has made a good Mayor. He made certain bad appointments to reward the men who put him in office, and he made an honest mistake in his first attempt to refund the city's debt at a low rate of interest. But he showed courage of a very high character in his dealing with the gas question and with terminal franchises, and if he has not introduced any striking reforms in municipal administration he has enforced honesty, secured efficiency and avoided scandal, and he is entitled to credit for his active and efficient work in bringing the Democratic Convention to St.
Louis.

He heads a ticket which will receive more than the customary majority and it is important it should do so. After three years and a half of Democratic national administration, it is evident that the Democratic party still has its work to do. Its work is one of reform and of political improvement, and it can best accomplish it by rolling up such a tremendous popular majority by gathering such a volume of public sentiment as shall overwhelm and sweep away those barriers of obstruction, delay and opposition which are represented by Republican surplus hoarding, protection to monopolies, needless taxation and sectional fanaticism. In this work every Democrat can do his share and the election in November should be made to show the full strength of the Democratic party.

MORTON'S CONTRACT LABOR.
The Congressional Committee investigating the importation of contract labor has had a witness before it, a newspaper reporter named CURTIS, who testified that he had investigated the charge that Hon.
LEVI P. MORTON was importing labor, and that he was told by Mr. MORTON that his two districts had been brought to this contract under contract to work for Mr. MORTON as day-laborers. He had also been told of a gardener named FOSKES, brought over under contract to work for Mr. MORTON at $30 or $35 a month, but who forfeited his contract and gave his note to Mr. Morton for $45 for the privilege of going to work at higher wages with Mr. W. K. YAN-DERBILT on Long Island. CURTIS has also learned from Mr. MORTON that a gardener named BOYD, now working for Mr. Morton, had been brought over under contract by him.

The committee of course pronounced this hearsay testimony and not evidence.
But the names and whereabouts of the witnesses of the alleged facts are given so circumstantially and with such air of good faith as to make it the duty of the committee to summon them if Mr. Morton does not himself take them before the committee to exculpate him.

Mr. MORTON'S party is posing before the people as the special friend of the American laborer, the special protector of his wages from competition with the pauper labor of Europe. Yet, if the allegations are true, the millionaire candidate of that party is not only importing foreign day-laborers and gardeners to outdown wages and save himself a few dollars, but is doing it in violation of the law.

Such a charge against a man of his wealth and position should not be allowed to stand a single day unrefuted.

COR. DUDLEY of Indiana, who assisted DODGE and NEW in buying that State with LEVI P. MORTON'S money in 1880, says he was never more sanguine of success than he is now. Probably he has had a glimpse of some such letter as the following, which was the basis of his confidence eight years ago:

DEAR MR. DODGE—I have just received your letter of the 10th, and have read with great interest your play of action. I wrote you on the 1st (on receipt of yours of the 20th), inclosing my check for the amount asked ($3,000) and now inclose my check for $5,000 additional. This makes my personal advances $8,000 without having collected a dollar from any one. I go back to-morrow at 1 o'clock, and you may count on my cordial co-operation.
He said Mr. NEW must stop short unless Mr. JEWELL could send him $5,000. I finally gave him a check for $4,000 (to Mr. NEW'S order) and sent $5,000 more to Senator BLANE, who was in distress. Yours very truly, L. P. MORTON.

New York, September 1, 1880.

THE elections yet to come before November are for State officers and Legislature in Georgia, October 3; for State officers, Legislature and Congressmen in Vermont, September 4; and for State officers, Legislature and Congressmen in Maine, September 10. All the States except Maine, Vermont and Oregon will elect Congressmen when they all choose their Presidential Electors November 6, and the eight organized Territories elect their Delegates the same day. The States that will not vote for either State officers or Legislatures at the same time as for Presidential Electors are Alabama, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Vermont, Georgia, Maryland, Mississippi, Oregon, and Rhode Island.

TO SEE A fine sample collection of American workmen whose wages have been raised and protected by our war tariff, go to the beautiful town of Lenox, Mass.
There summering in what the rich call their "summer cottages" are less than a dozen "cottagers" whose aggregate wealth is not less than $100,000,000. Some of our American workmen have had their wages raised and protected to such an extent that the humble cottage of the American millionaire is not good enough for them, and, like the Carnegie brothers, they spend their surplus wages housekeeping in Cluny Castle or other princely mansions of the Old World in summer.

In rejecting the fisheries treaty the Senate Republicans did not mean war, but just enough of a war scare to add another raid on the surplus and to give another blow to tax reduction. They obeyed the behests of the Gloucester Fisheries Trust and the Pacific Coast combine, both of which are seeking opportunity for frying more fat out of the American people. A war scare would fry a great deal of fat out of the United States Treasury, and a year or two of commercial non-intercourse with Canada would enable protected tariff monopolies to fry a great deal more fat out of American labor.

THERE is some talk of the Democratic Campaign Committee making strong efforts to carry Iowa, Illinois and Michigan, which are classed among enthusiastic States for doubtful States. They may be doubtful, and there is no objection to the Campaign Committee giving the orators a little exercise in them, but New York, Indiana and New Jersey furnish better working ground and offer vastly more substantial results after the contest.

AN UNANSWERED Charge.
The relations between the morning papers are sufficiently indicated by the following paragraph which the Globe Democrat keeps in a conspicuous position on its editorial page. It is a charge that the opposition is plotting and disguised alliance.

How Gross Circulations Are Made.
(From a Circular to Newspapers issued by the St.
Louis Post-Dispatch.)

During a period of three months from Thursday will increase in order to such an amount as in OUR judgment seems necessary, and all such papers sent over and above your regular order will be subject to the return privilege

A Rich Man's Party.
(From the New York Times (Ind. Rep.).)

Rich men, often without too much regard to how their riches were obtained, have come to the front and taken the lead. Under Republican auspices, they have been chosen as candidates for the Vice-Presidency had he been a poor man. A respectable private citizen, he has never given the slightest evidence of being endowed with unusual capacity for public affairs. Indeed, such evidence as is afforded by his brief and obscure career in Congress is all against that conclusion. On the other hand, he has failed conspicuously to secure the confidence of the people of the country. He has been chosen as a candidate for the Vice-Presidency, and as a matter of fact, the tendency toward something very like corruption and wholly unlike candid and honest politics has grown in the Republican party with the growth of prosperity. When men have been chosen as candidates for the Vice-Presidency, they are ready to use money in politics, and this is the way in which money has come to be more important in the Republican party than anything else.

Protected Crosses.
(From the Boston Herald.)

On the piazza of the Curtis Hotel, the other day, a gentleman remarked:
"I am sure if you are a Republican, you are thirteen cottagers in Lenox who are worth in the aggregate $150,000,000 at least."

He placed at the head of the list the name of D. W. Bishop, who is considered one of the wealthiest men in the country. He comes up from the South, and against his name he placed the sum of $25,000,000. This was followed by the name of George W. Washington, $20,000, W. D. Sloane, $15,000,000; Charles Lanier, $10,000,000; and such and such a name, and Crocker, $13,000,000; William H. Bradford, $10, 000,000; James L. Barclay, $10,000,000; Anson Phelps Stokes, $8,000,000; Brayton Ives, $8,000, 000; Col. Anshutz, $5,000,000; Mr. Lawrence Foster, $5,000,000; and Mrs. Furness, $5,000, 000.

"There," he said, "adding these estimates together makes the grand total $150,000,000, and I think these are all fair estimates of the amounts each one of these individuals is worth."

Free Lumber and Wages.
(From the New York Times.)

Mr. E. J. Lawrence, a Kansas lumberman, on the subject of the lumber trade, said: "It would not reduce their wages. My impression is that it would make their wages better. And I will tell you why I think so. We hire from 200 to 300 men every winter to work in the woods. About eight out of every ten of these men are Frenchmen, who come over from Canada to work in the woods and then go back in the spring. So you see we get the lumber labor of Canada at a 200,000 piece, and what few Americans there are that work for us have to compete with the Frenchmen. Now, if the Mills bill should pass, with lumber on the free list, there is no doubt that it would stimulate the lumber business to some extent in Canada, consequently their men would get more work and better wages at home and would not flock over here so much. That would give our laboring men a better show and better wages here."

Mr. Tilden's Will.
(From the New York Tribune.)

Speaking of Democrats and politics, Robert O. Maxwell, the superintendent of the Inventance Department, who was here this week, gave a good instance of the quickness of wit of that eminent Democrat, Samuel J. Tilden.
Mr. Maxwell said that shortly after the election of 1874 William D. Washburn, who had just run for Lieutenant-Governor on the ticket with Mr. Tilden, came into Mr. Tilden's office in Wall street and said: "I have just received from Albany the official statement of our vote and I find, Mr. Tilden, that I am about three hundred votes ahead of you. You receive 50,000 majority, and I receive 50,000. In round numbers." Mr. Tilden smiled benignly and then quoted Dorothea's answer to the remark:

"I gave you those 50,000 votes."

Evangelical Destiny.
(From the Springfield Mass.)

While Senator Francis is in his two days' speech on the fisheries treaty employed 251 words in one sentence to say that the Democrats supported the treaty because it was made by a Democratic administration, he did not say one word about the merits of that contract. It had been understood that the able New York Senator would take up the legal side of the issue, and lay down international law in a way to confound the puny refuge of the Senate chamber. No one knows why he elected to deliver a political harangue instead of a lawyer's plea. Perhaps he was not quite equal to challenging a review of his own record on the fisheries.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.
Glasgow, Aug. 22.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: As a native of the second city of the British Kingdom, I cannot allow such a book regarding its beauties and pleasures as appears in last night's edition of your paper to go un-commented. "The Joyless City of Glasgow," said without comment, and I trust you will be as kind as to publish it in your paper.

The writer of the paragraph to the Philadelphia Telegraph asks where are the pleasures, where are the pleasures gardens, the merry dances, the merry games, the merry sports, the merry games, etc. From these things, as anybody who has been in Glasgow can tell you, there is a great deal to be seen and heard. It is a city of pleasure, and it is a city of pleasure.
Allow me to tell you a few of the pleasures which are to be seen and heard in Glasgow.

BALFOUR'S VICTIMS.

A CONTROVERSY ABOUT HIS TREATMENT OF IRISH POLITICAL OFFENDERS.

Glasgow, August 22.—The admission of Balfour to the office of Lord Provost of Glasgow has caused a controversy about his treatment of Irish political offenders, wherein they seek to establish that the treatment of his political prisoners in Ireland is precisely the same as that of King Bomba, Bomba, this is a dubious compliment. In his speech at Glasgow, Balfour made the assertion that Bomba did not make political offenders hard with felons. Thereupon an anonymous correspondent of the Times ransacked Glasgow's famous letters describing him to the police and made him a cordial welcome to the city. Balfour's speech was a commonplace. The fact is not disputed that Balfour is so represented in a painting which still hangs at the Bazaar Palace at Glasgow. Glasgow is a city of 300,000 inhabitants, and he had forgotten the circumstances of this particular case, but add that Balfour had been convicted of high treason; also that he saw a political prisoner wearing his own dress and having him a cordial welcome to the city. Balfour's speech was a

Efforts to Organize a Pool Not meeting with Success.

NEW YORK, August 25.—The Times says: There is some question whether the manufacturers of wall paper will finally succeed in organizing a pool to control prices. They held two meetings during the past week, but on Friday one of them came near winding up as a farce.

men and awe by the appearance of the old plan of the American Wall Paper Association, which went out of existence one year ago, but the more the debaters considered the more obstinate became the debaters until the meeting was adjourned. The representatives of the American Wall Paper Association were C. C. Carpenter and M. H. Birge & Co. definitely refused to discuss the subject of foreignism, and the meeting broke up. The next day, however, at the another meeting, lasting from the afternoon until the evening, the subject was discussed.

Mr. Chasaling failed to recognize the gentleman with the appetite as a guest of the hotel and an investigation was set on foot which resulted in the arrest of the man. He was neither registered nor in any way contributed to the hotel revenues. A warrant was accordingly sworn out, and as the unwitting guest descended the stairs after dinner he fell into the unsmiling hands of Officer King, by plans for organization were submitted, but upon none of them could they all agree, because it was said all plans presented were intended to bind the members of the proposed organization to the cause of the strikers in the pool and who were the means of breaking up the pool before by understanding would be able to secure all the trade. Such arrangement they held would simply be LITTLE ROCK, ARK., August 8.—George W. Gill has been pardoned for the posthumously convicted forgery of a check for $100,000 by Gov. Hughes. Gill, who is said to be feeble-minded, forged his mother's name to a note and secured about $30. He was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. His home is in the Transvaal Colony.

To the Lords of Creation:

Woman's life is lived w circle bounded by love. S not expand beyond this lin if the boundary be broken is ruined forever, and she only to shrink into nothing.

With man it is different, but a part of his life—not li Interest, ambition, fame, Life forever broadens, and cally knows no bounds.

It seems incredible that worthy the name could ever woman's love but to cher keep it forever.

It also seems incredible man with good common could think of buying a $3 Shirt anywhere but Crat when he can get it there for a Two-Dollar Shirt for $1.50.

He can also buy a nobby Shirt, open front, with coll cuffs attached, or open back two collars and one pair of genuine French Percale worth a dollar—for 75 cents.
